

Stuart Bell is currently the superintendent minister of the Nottingham (Trent Valley) Methodist circuit.

He is widely published on religion and conflict, most recently 'Faith in Conflict: The impact of the Great War on the faith of the people of Britain' (Helion & Co, 2017).

Dispelling the Myths: Church and Faith in the Great War

Rev Dr Stuart Bell,
Wesley Study Centre Fellow

Thursday 1st November
Tristram Room,
St John's College
4.00-5.15pm

Refreshments available from 3.30pm

For further information or to book, email elizabeth.kent@durham.ac.uk