

1. Absent: Rachel (JCR rep), Jeff Gougis (welfare officer)
2. No announcements
3. Agenda Items:
 - MCR/SCR formal
 - 22 November
 - SCR organizing the main meal, MCR hosting predrinks beforehand and wine and cheese afterward
 - Assigned seating in groups of 4
 - Possibility of bringing guests?
 - JCR website
 - MCR members can volunteer to write blog posts about what the MCR is up to
 - Mostly for fourth years and and mature students, to encourage them to get involved
 - Anyone can access the website, not just JCR or college members
 - MCR Thanksgiving!
 - 23 November
 - Potluck style- everyone sign up to bring a dish on a google form
 - Budget will cover a turkey
 - SCR is organizing a trip to the Christmas markets in the Lake District
 - 3 December
 - £8 bus ticket
 - But depending on interest, MCR could probably subsidize some and bring it down to £4-5
 - Rachel suggested a mature students event
 - Hosted by the MCR, to get more involved with the mature and 4th year students
 - Should be a more casual event, like a games night
 - Put out interest poll beforehand to get an idea of numbers so we know where to host it

- All Exec names are on the MCR website now
 - Send a photo and an intro blurb to Kirk for website or else
- Stash
 - Currently, Phoenix print does most of the stash, but apparently many organizations are switching away from them this year
 - Last year, a crewneck jumper was ~£17-20, possibly plus £5 for customization
 - Screen printing vs embroidery
 - JCR is considering switching to Moette, they'll let us know what they do
- Welfare update
 - Ellen and Jeff planning to host weekly drop in sessions, tentatively on Wednesday afternoons
 - Also planning on coordinating more events with JCR welfare

4. Future Agenda

- ▶ ALL EXEC email Kirk with a photo of yourself and an introductory blurb for the MCR website, or else he'll do it for you based on your facebook
- ▶ Send any and all event ideas to the Social Secs through the form!
- ▶ Everyone check your emails and the Exec WhatsApp
- ▶ Put all these events in your diaries
